

OREGON CARTOON INSTITUTE
thank yous

The 2019 Oregon Film History Conference was made possible by the generous support of:

Kinsman Foundation
Oregon Film Museum
Oregon Film
James Blue Alliance
Sirius Media
Anonymous

Travel grant for Richard Gehr
Sue Kelly

Board of directors
Carl Abbott
Bill Crawford
Eris Hillerns
Anne Richardson
Ben Truwe

Director
Anne Richardson

Archivist
Dennis Nyback

Advisory board
David Chelsea
Bill Plympton
Sheldon Renan

Conference steering committee
Libby Burke, BPA
Michele Kribs, OHS
Elizabeth Peterson, UO
Anne Richardson, OCI

Conference volunteers
Katherine Bruna
Gretchen Harmon
Brad Robison

Wonderful support from
Matthew Johnston, Lewis & Clark Art History Department
Sara Hill, Bon Appetit at Lewis & Clark
Linda Thompson, Lewis & Clark Facilities Office
MacKenna Teigland, Lewis & Clark Events Office

Founded by Anne Richardson and Dennis Nyback in 2007, Oregon Cartoon Institute uses new media, archival film, research, networking, and cross disciplinary discussion to explore Oregon film, animation, and print cartooning history. It has no brick and mortar presence, and always works in partnership with organizations which do.

“Cartoons are powerful. They change the way people think.” Bill Plympton