Dear Steve

You are invited to the third annual Oregon Film History Invitational, on May 5, 2017.

What:

A one day interdisciplinary Oregon film history conference designed to serve the needs of professionals.

Who:

Ronald Kramer, radio historian; Elizabeth Peterson, UO Humanities & Moving Images Librarian; Gretchen Harmon, author; David Chelsea, author; Julie Perini, filmmaker; David Cress, filmmaker.

Where:

The Little Church
5138 NE 23rd
Portland, OR

When:

Friday, May 5, 2017
9:00 AM to 4:00 PM
(lunch on your own, Alberta one block away)

Presented by:

Oregon Cartoon Institute, with help from Oregon Film, Oregon Film Museum.

The Invitational is designed for serious discussion and networking among educators, historians, filmmakers, and museum professionals across the state. The event is human scaled, to encourage interaction. What we want to create is a low key, informative, relaxed, day long conversation.

Let me know if I can answer any questions, and let me know whether you are coming, so I can keep an accurate count of how many seats I have left.

Sincerely,

Anne Richardson
Director, Oregon Cartoon Institute
